The Paper Boats

On Saturday, Wang Hao and Tom made paper boats. Wang Hao's boat was red. Tom's boat was blue.

They took the boats to the pond in the park. They put the boats on the water. The wind pushed them slowly across the pond.

Then the red boat got wet. It went down, down, down to the bottom. Wang Hao was sad.

"Don't worry," said Tom. "We can make a new one."

At home, they made a new red boat. This time, Wang Hao used thick paper and coloured it with wax crayons.

The next day, the new boat sailed all the way across the pond.

"It is the best boat in the world!" said Wang Hao.

Honeybees: Busy Workers

Honeybees live together in a home called a hive. A big hive can hold more than fifty thousand bees! Each hive has one queen. She is the largest bee, and her job is to lay eggs. Most of the other bees are workers.

Busy workers

Worker bees have many jobs. Young workers clean the hive and feed the baby bees. Older workers fly out to find flowers. They drink a sweet juice called nectar and carry it back to the hive. There, they turn the nectar into honey and store it in tiny wax rooms called cells.

The waggle dance

When a worker finds good flowers, she flies home and does a special dance. She waggles her body from side to side and walks in a figure of eight. The dance tells the other bees which way to fly and how far to go.

Why we need bees

As bees move from flower to flower, yellow dust called pollen sticks to their hairy bodies. They carry it to other flowers. This helps plants to make seeds and fruit. Without bees, there would be fewer apples, strawberries and pumpkins.

Bees can sting, but they usually sting only when they are frightened. If a bee comes near you, keep still, and it will usually fly away.

Year 4 Admission Assessment: assessor booklet

Candidate name
Date of birth
Year group applied for
Current school
Date of assessment
Assessor

Who this is for. Students applying for Year 4 are usually 8 years old on 1 September. A student from a Chinese mainstream school has usually completed Grade 2 (二年级): numbers to 10 000, adding and subtracting, times tables to 9 × 9 and division facts, cm and m, g and kg, time to the minute, right angles and simple tables of data. Fractions, perimeter, area, millimetres and multiplying by a one-digit number usually come in Grade 3. English as a school subject often starts in Grade 3, so many students have only had English classes outside school; students from bilingual schools may be close to fluent.

How it works. About 57 minutes of student time, plus a welcome and a short break. The student writes in the Student paper (20 pages). Listening, reading, writing and maths can be taken in a small group with one invigilator (the listening is read to the group); the interview with sentence reading is always 1:1. Mark everything the same day and copy the score summary (Section 5) onto the Candidate Summary and Decision (`forms/Candidate_Summary_and_Decision.md`).

	Total	about 57, plus welcome and break

Print for each student: the Student paper (A4, single-sided, at actual size), this assessor booklet, `shared/Sentence_Reading_Record.md`, `forms/Interview_Record_Y3_Y4.md` and `forms/Candidate_Summary_and_Decision.md`. Reuse: the laminated `shared/Sentence_Reading_Card.md`.

2. Before you start

The room. Quiet and bright, with space between desks. Each student has a pencil, a rubber and a ruler. Keep the door open or another adult present.

Say: "Hello, everyone. My name is [your name]. I am a teacher here. Today you will do some listening, reading, writing and maths, and then you will talk with a teacher. These activities help us get to know you. Some questions are easy and some are hard. That is fine. Do your best. It is fine if you cannot answer every question."

Help each student write their name and the date on page 1. Point to the "How to answer" box and say: "This shows you how to answer. Tick a box like this. Write in a box like this. Show your working like this."

Access rules (the same in every year group)

	English sections: listening, reading, writing, sentence reading	Maths
Reading aloud	Say only what the script says. Do not explain words, translate, or read the reading texts or questions for the student. You may repeat an instruction in English.	Read any question aloud in English, as often as the student asks, and point to the picture.
Chinese	Not used by staff.	If a Chinese-speaking colleague is present and the student cannot follow the English after it has been read aloud, the colleague may say the question once in Chinese. Write L by the question. The mark still counts.
Answers	In English only. An answer in Chinese scores 0.	In English only: numbers, words, ticks, drawings and working all count. An answer or explanation in Chinese scores 0.

Codes. NT not yet taught: the student says they have not learnt it; it scores 0 and is listed in the summary. L language support in maths. Record extra time, a reader or any other access arrangement for a known need in the score summary.

Stopping and keeping students at ease. Any student may stop a section when they have done what they can: they turn over and wait quietly. Praise effort, not answers. If a student is upset, give them a break or stop, and record it. Never press a distressed child. At the end of each timed part, let students finish the question they are on, then move on together.

3. English

3.1 Listening (5 minutes, student paper pages 2 to 3)

Say: "Turn to page 2, Part 1: Listening. You are going to hear a phone call. Li Na is talking to her friend Amir. I will read it two times. First, look at the questions with me."

Read the eight questions aloud, once, without the answer choices: "Question 1. Where are they going on Saturday? Question 2. What time will they meet? Question 3. Where is the bus stop? Question 4. What must Amir bring? Tick two pictures. Question 5. What will Grandma make for lunch? Question 6. How old is Amir's brother? Question 7. Why does Amir's brother not need a ticket? Question 8. How does Amir feel about the trip? How do you know?"

Say: "Now listen. You can answer while you listen, and after."

Read it twice at a natural, steady pace. Change your voice a little for the two speakers, but do not act. Do not stress the answers. Leave about 20 seconds between the two readings, and about 1 minute after the second reading for students to finish.

A phone call

Li Na: Hello, Amir. It's Li Na.

Amir: Hi, Li Na!

Li Na: Are you free on Saturday? My grandma is taking me to the zoo. Last time we went to the park, but this time we're going to the zoo. Can you come with us? [pause]

Amir: Yes, please! I love the zoo. What time are you going?

Li Na: Grandma wanted to go at eight o'clock, but that's very early. So we're going to meet at nine o'clock. [pause]

Amir: Nine o'clock. OK. Where?

Li Na: At the bus stop. Not the bus stop near our school. The bus stop next to the supermarket. [pause]

Amir: OK, next to the supermarket. What do I need to bring?

Li Na: Bring a hat, because it will be sunny. You don't need an umbrella. And bring some water. Don't bring any lunch. Grandma is making dumplings for everyone. [pause]

Amir: Yum! I love dumplings. Can my little brother come too? He's five.

Li Na: I'll ask Grandma. [pause] She says yes! Children under six don't need a ticket. [pause]

Amir: Brilliant! I can't wait. See you on Saturday!

Li Na: Bye, Amir!

Band guide: 0 to 2 A; 3 to 4 B; 5 to 6 C; 7 D; 8 E. Listening band: A B C D E

What to look for

- Questions 1 to 3 each have a distractor that is also said (the park, eight o'clock, the school). Choosing the distractor means the student caught a familiar word but not "last time", "but" or "not": typical of band B.
- Questions 5 and 6 need one heard word. A clear but misspelt word still scores: it is a listening task.
- Questions 7 and 8 need the student to join two pieces of information or read Amir's feelings. Students who score these are following connected talk at a natural pace (bands D and E).

3.2 Reading paper (12 minutes, student paper pages 4 to 10)

Say: "Turn to page 4, Part 2: Reading. There are three texts: a menu, a story and a text about honeybees. Read each text and answer the questions. Do as much as you can. It is fine if you do not finish. You have 12 minutes." Do not read any text or question aloud. Tell the students when there are 2 minutes left.

The three parts get harder. Part A is a menu with pictures. Part B is a short story written about two years below age level. Part C is non-fiction (an information text about honeybees, with a labelled diagram) at the level of a fluent 8 year old reader, and it is meant to stretch.

Answers (1 mark each unless stated). Spelling does not matter if the answer is clear, except where the question asks the student to copy a word.

Part A 4 or more, Part B under 4	B
Part B 4 or more, Part C under 3	C
Part C 3 to 5	D
Part C 6 to 8	E

Use judgement when a result is uneven (for example a high Part C score with a low Part B score usually means the student rushed or ran out of time), and check against the sentence reading screen. Reading band: A B C D E

What to look for

- Strong readers finish Part C, answer in their own words and give reasons ("because ...").
- Decoding ahead of understanding: a good sentence reading score but weak Part B and Part C answers, or answers copied from the wrong place in the text. Common for students who learnt phonics or the phonetic alphabet outside school.
- An English barrier, not a reading difficulty: correct answers that are hard to read ("so it not scard and sting") still score.

3.3 Writing (10 minutes, student paper pages 11 to 12)

Say: "Turn to page 11, Part 3: Writing. There are two tasks. Choose one task and tick the box. Task 1 is a story about a big egg. Task 2 is about your favourite day of the year. Use the plan box first if you want to. Then write on page 12. You have 10 minutes." You may read the two task boxes aloud once. Do not give words, spellings or ideas.

The two tasks

- Task 1: The big egg (story, with a picture). "Jun and Sofia find a very big egg in the park. Write a story. What is inside the egg? What happens next?"
- Task 2: My favourite day of the year (my favourite). "Write about your favourite day of the year. When is it? What do you do? Who is with you? Why do you like it?"

The four criteria. Score each from 0 to 4; 1 and 3 fall between the descriptions.

Criterion	0	2	4
Content and organisation	No English writing on the task, or only copied words.	A few connected sentences on the task, with a simple order (a beginning and an end, or a short list of things they do).	A complete piece that suits the task: a story with a beginning, an event or problem and an ending, or a description with several points and reasons. Ideas grouped in paragraphs or clear sections.
Vocabulary	No English words of the student's own.	Everyday words, often repeated (nice, good, big, go, play).	Varied, precise words for the age (cracked, peeped, wobbled, delicious, lanterns, excited) and some longer noun phrases ("a huge spotted egg").
Grammar and sentences	No sentence.	Simple sentences with frequent errors in tense, plurals and "a" and "the"; ideas joined mostly with "and" and "then".	Mostly accurate sentences, a range of joining words (because, when, so, but, if, after), tense kept the same, some variety (a question, some speech).
Spelling and punctuation	Very few words can be read.	Common words mostly right; other words spelt as they sound; capital letters and full stops some of the time.	Most words right, including common Year 2 and Year 3 words; capital letters, full stops, question marks and commas in lists used correctly; perhaps speech marks or apostrophes.

Task chosen	Content and organisation	Vocabulary	Grammar and sentences	Spelling and punctuation	Total
1 2	/ 4	/ 4	/ 4	/ 4	/ 16

Writing band (best fit). Read the piece against the band descriptors in `00_Admissions_Guide.md`, Section 6, and choose the band that fits best, not the total alone. As a rough guide: about 0 to 3 A, 4 to 7 B, 8 to 10 C, 11 to 13 D, 14 to 16 E. Writing band: A B C D E

What band E looks like at this age. In 10 minutes, about 10 to 14 lines or more: a story with a clear beginning, middle and end, or an organised description with reasons; sentences joined with because, when, so and if; the tense kept the same; some well-chosen words and longer phrases; common words spelt correctly; capital letters, full stops and question marks used correctly, perhaps with speech marks. This is what a fluent English-speaking child at the end of UK Year 3 writes.

What to look for

- Missing past tense and plural endings and missing "a" and "the" are normal for a learner of English. Judge how much the student can communicate and organise.
- A long, well-organised piece with many grammar errors (band C or D) shows a student who will make fast progress with support; a short, accurate piece may show a cautious writer: compare with the interview.
- Task 2 is easier to write from memory; Task 1 needs imagination. Note which task was chosen.

3.4 Interview with sentence reading (12 minutes, 1:1)

Use `forms/Interview_Record_Y3_Y4.md`. The interview opens with the Graded Sentence Reading Screen (`shared/Sentence_Reading_Card.md` and `shared/Sentence_Reading_Record.md`): start at Level 3 (sentence 7) and follow the start, going back and stopping rules on the record (about 3 to 4 minutes). Then hold the interview: choose about two questions from each block, and give the speaking band on the form. The interview also gives a "listening in conversation" band: compare it with the listening task. To finish, thank the student and tell them one thing they did well. Do not give any results.

4. Maths (18 minutes, student paper pages 13 to 20)

Say: "Turn to page 13, Part 4: Maths. Section A is number problems. Section B is word problems and problems with pictures. I can read any question to you. Just put your hand up. You have 18 minutes. Do not use a calculator."

- Equipment: pencil, rubber, ruler. No calculator.
- Reading aloud: read any question in English as often as the student asks, and point to the picture. The word problems are Questions 10, 12, 14b and 17. In a group, go to the student and read quietly. The Chinese reading is once only, by a colleague, after the English: write L.

- Time: about 6 minutes for Section A and 12 for Section B. Tell the students when there are 5 minutes left. If a student says they have not learnt something, write NT.
- Questions 7 and 16b are Year 4 content, there to find the ceiling. A Year 4 entrant is not expected to get them.

Mark scheme. One mark for each answer unless the table says otherwise. Type: N number problem, W word problem, P problem with a picture, chart or diagram.

Band guide (provisional, to be reviewed after the first 20 to 30 candidates): 0 to 9 1 Well below expected; 10 to 14 2 Working towards; 15 to 21 3 Expected; 22 to 25 4 Greater depth. List the NT questions. If they explain a low score, judge whether the student would reach band 3 once taught.

Number problems and word problems. The word problems use the same skills as number problems in Section A: Question 10 (3 × 8) with Question 3, Question 12 (92 – 35) with Questions 1 and 2, Question 17 with Questions 3 and 1. A student who does well on number problems but poorly on word problems may have an English barrier rather than a maths difficulty: check by reading the word problem aloud (and, if a Chinese-speaking colleague is present, once in Chinese, marked L).

What to look for

- Strong: accurate written methods (column addition and subtraction, a written method for 23 × 4), working shown, sensible use of the diagrams, and answers checked against the picture.
- A maths difficulty: errors in Section A on taught content (Questions 1, 3 and 4) as well as in Section B; counting in ones on the grid and the bar chart.
- An English barrier: a strong Section A but blank or wrong word problems, or many requests to read a question; answers that come quickly once the question has been read aloud or said in Chinese.

Likely not yet taught for a student who has completed Chinese Grade 2: Questions 5 and 7 (multiplying by a one-digit number), 6 and 15 (fractions), 11 (millimetres), 14b (time intervals across the hour) and 16 (perimeter and area). Question 2 (column methods with exchanges) and Question 9 (bar charts) may also be new. Students from bilingual schools, or who have started Grade 3, may have met some of these.

Graded Sentence Reading Screen: assessor record

Candidate name
Date of birth
Age today (years:months)
Year group applied for
Date
Assessor

What it is. A quick 1:1 read-aloud screen for every candidate from Year 1 to Year 10. The student reads sentences that get harder, from a reading age of about 5 to adult level, until they can no longer read them. It gives an indicative reading age, an accuracy profile, a fluency rating and an understanding check. It takes 2 to 6 minutes. In Years 1 to 3 it follows the Early Reading Screen; from Year 4 it opens the interview.

You need: the student card (`Sentence_Reading_Card`), this record, a pencil, and a plain card or sheet of paper to cover the sentences the student has not reached yet (this stops a page of text looking frightening).

1. Start, carry on, stop

Year applied for	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Start at level	1	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
First sentence	1	1	4	7	10	13	16	19	22	25

- If you already know the student is new to English, start at Level 1 whatever their age.
- Going back (basal). If the student scores 6 out of 6 on the start level, give full credit (6 points) for every level below it. If they score less than 6, go back one level at a time until they score 6 out of 6 on a level (or you reach Level 1). Then carry on upwards from the level after the start level.
- Stopping (ceiling). Always finish the start level. Then stop at the end of any level where the student scores 2 points or fewer. Stop straight away if the student scores 0 on three sentences in a row, or if they become upset. Levels above the stopping point score 0.

Say: "I would like you to read some sentences out loud for me. They start easy and get harder. When they get too hard, that is fine, we will stop. If you do not know a word, have a go. Ready?" Point to the first sentence. You may say "Have a go" or "Try the next word". Do not sound out, explain or translate any word.

2. Scoring each sentence

Errors in the sentence	Points
none (self-corrections are fine)	2
one	1
two or more	0

These count as one error each

Code	Error	Example
S	Substitution: says a different word or a non-word	"horse" for house; "sur-pried" for surprised
O	Omission: leaves out a word, or leaves off a written ending that changes the word (-s, -ed, -ing, -ly)	"The frog jump out" for jumped
I	Insertion: adds a word that is not there	"the a red bus"

Code	Error	Example
T	Told: no attempt after about 5 seconds; say the word, mark T
	Two words read in the wrong order	one error

These are not errors (mark them, but do not count them)

Code	What happens	Why it is not an error
SC	Self-correction: reads a word wrongly, then puts it right	The student is checking meaning.
R	Repetition of a word or phrase
	Pauses, or sounding out and then blending the word correctly	Note it for fluency instead.
	Accent and pronunciation features common for speakers of Chinese, when the word is still clearly the right word: l and r ("lice" for rice), n and l, v and w, th as s, f, d or z ("sink" for think), a light or missing final consonant sound, an extra vowel after a final consonant ("bed-uh"), the -ed ending said in full ("jump-ed"), stress on a different syllable ("ho-TEL", "PHO-to-graph")	These are features of a learner's spoken English, not of reading. If the sound changes the word into a different word that makes sense, and you cannot tell which was meant, count it.
	Names (Ling, Jun, Mei) read in any reasonable way
	Reading the British spelling as written ("tyres", "colour")

When you are not sure, give the student the benefit of the doubt and write what they said in the notes. Patterns in the notes (for example missing -ed endings throughout, or pinyin letter values such as "i" read as in pinyin) are useful evidence for the English profile.

3. Understanding (the meaning check)

After each level the student reads with 3 or more points, ask the meaning question for that level (printed in the record). Read the question aloud once and let the student answer in their own words. Record ✓ (understood), ½ (partly) or ✗ (not understood). The answer must be in English: one word or a short phrase is enough, and pointing to the right words in the sentence also counts. An answer in Chinese is recorded ✗.

4. Fluency

Rate the student's reading on the last level they read with 4 or more points.

Rating	What it sounds like
1	Word by word. Long pauses. Little sense of the sentence as a whole.
2	Mostly two- or three-word groups, with some word-by-word reading. Little expression.
3	Mostly in sensible phrases. Some pauses to work out harder words. The sentence makes sense to the listener.
4	Smooth and phrased, close to natural speech, with stress and expression that show understanding.

6. Reading age

Total points = points scored + 6 for every level below the basal level that was not read.

Reading age (years:months) = 5:00 + 2 months for every point (0 points: below 5:00). So 6 points = 6:00 (Level 1 secure), 12 points = 7:00, 30 points = 10:00, 60 points = 15:00, 72 points = 17:00 (the ceiling: report "16 years or above" for 66 points or more).

7. What the result means

This screen is not standardised. The reading ages come from the way the sentences were built (how common the words are, the spelling patterns in the English National Curriculum word lists for each year, and the length and structure of the sentences). Treat a reading age as a range of about 6 months either side. Once 30 to 50 students have taken it, compare their reading ages with the reading paper and with how they get on in class, and adjust the guide below if needed.

The reading band. In Years 1 to 3 the reading band comes from the Early Reading Screen; in Years 4 to 10 from the reading paper. This screen confirms the band. Use the table as a guide; if this screen and the main reading result differ by more than one band, look for the reason (below).

Reading age compared with actual age	Years 3 to 5	Years 6 to 10
At or above actual age, or close below it	up to 6 months below: E	up to 12 months below: E
Below	7 to 12 months below: D	13 to 24 months below: D
Well below	13 to 24 months below: C	25 to 42 months below: C
Far below	25 to 36 months below: B	43 to 60 months below: B
Very far below, or Level 1 not secure	more than 36 months below: A	more than 60 months below: A

- Years 1 and 2. Many fluent English speakers score 0 to 6 points at the start of Year 1. At the start of Year 2 a fluent reader usually has Level 1 secure and often Level 2. Use the reading age as supporting evidence only.
- Decoding ahead of understanding. If the meaning checks on the last two levels read are mostly ✗, move the band down one. This is common for students who learnt phonics or the phonetic alphabet well but have a small English vocabulary: they can "say" words they do not know.
- Understanding ahead of decoding. A student who understands well (✓ throughout) but stops early on long, rare words may be a confident English user who has had little reading practice, or may have a specific difficulty with reading. Look at the Early Reading Screen or the reading paper and, if there is a pattern, raise it in the summary.
- Low fluency (rating 1 or 2) with a good reading age often means effortful decoding: the student will find long texts in English tiring at first.
- Level 1 not secure at any age: use the letter sounds and Section 1 words of the Early Reading Screen to find what the student knows.

Student interview and suitability record: Years 3 and 4

Candidate name

Interviewer
Others present (for example receiving homeroom teacher; Chinese-speaking colleague)

About 8 minutes in Year 3 and 12 minutes in Year 4, 1:1. The interview is held in English, as a friendly chat. It has three jobs: to hear the child's spoken English, to get to know the child (likes, school, friends, hopes for the future), and to judge their suitability for the international programme. In Year 3 the sentence reading is done with the Early Reading Screen; in Year 4 the interview opens with the Graded Sentence Reading Screen (start Level 3; record on `shared/Sentence_Reading_Record.md`).

How to ask. Sit beside the child. Have paper and crayons ready: some children talk more easily while drawing ("Draw something you love doing, and tell me about it"). Ask the main question first. If the child struggles, use the easier prompt (a yes or no, a choice, or pointing). If they answer easily, use the stretch prompt. Wait at least five seconds before rephrasing. Answers must be in English.

Safeguarding. Keep the door open or another adult present. If a child tells you something that worries you, do not promise to keep it secret; listen, write down their words, and pass it to the Designated Safeguarding Lead the same day.

3. Speaking band

Circle the band that fits best, for a child of this age.

Band	What you hear
A New to English	No English yet, or a few single words ("yes", "cat"). Uses Chinese, pointing or silence. Understands very little without pictures or gesture.
B Early acquisition	Single words, short phrases and some simple sentences ("I like football"). Needs the easier prompts. Understands slow, simple questions with support.
C Developing competence	Answers in short sentences and can say a little more with prompting ("I like football because it is fun"). Errors are common; meaning is usually clear.
D Competent	Talks easily, joins ideas, tells a little story or explains, with occasional errors. Understands nearly everything said at a normal pace.
E Fluent	Speaks as a fluent English-speaking child of the same age would.

Staff member
Parents or carers present
Language used (and interpreter if any)

About 15 minutes. Hold it while the student does the written tasks with another adult, or straight after. Use the family's preferred language; a Chinese-speaking colleague should lead or interpret if the staff member does not speak Chinese. The aim is a two-way conversation: to understand the child and the family's hopes, to explain how the international programme works, and to check that what the family wants matches what the school offers. Do not discuss the assessment results on the day.

1. Why the international programme?

Question	Notes
Why are you looking for a place in the international programme, and why now?
What do you know about how the programme works (lessons in English, the UK-style curriculum, assessment, homework, activities)?
Whose idea is the move, and how does your child feel about it?

2. Schooling so far

Question	Notes
Schools attended, years, and type (Chinese mainstream, bilingual, international, overseas)
Any year repeated or skipped? Any long gaps?
Why is the child leaving their current school?
Student registration (学籍): where is it held now, and what will happen to it? (admissions office to give the school's position)
School reports, certificates and any assessments the family can share

3. Languages

Question	Notes
Which languages are spoken at home, and by whom?
How has the child learnt English so far (school lessons from which grade, classes outside school, tutor, online, time abroad, English-speaking carer)? About how many hours a week?
Does the child read in English at home? In Chinese?
How will the family support English at home (reading, media, activities), and support Chinese if that matters to the family?

4. Learning, health and development

Ask gently and explain why: the school wants to have the right support ready from the first day.

Question	Notes
What is your child good at? What do they enjoy most?
Has any teacher or doctor ever raised a concern about learning, speech and language, attention, behaviour, hearing or vision? Any assessments or reports?
Any extra help at the current school?
Medical conditions, allergies, medication (also on the school medical form)
For young children: speech in Chinese for their age, toilet and self-care, sleep

5. Wellbeing and the week

Question	Notes
How would you describe your child's personality? How do they cope with change?
Friendships: does your child make friends easily?
A typical weekday and weekend: after-school classes, tutoring, sport, music, screen time, sleep
Any big changes in the family recently (a move, a new baby, a parent working away)? Share only what you are comfortable sharing.

6. Expectations and partnership

Question	Notes
What would make this a successful first year for your child?
What do you expect from the school (homework, reports, communication, class rankings, exam results)? Explain how the school reports progress and how it communicates.
How does the family feel about co-curricular activities, sport, arts, service and wellbeing as part of education, not just exam subjects?
Learning in a new language takes time: explain what is typical (social English often within one to two years; the English needed for academic work often takes several years) and how the school supports it. How does the family feel about this?
How would the family like to be involved (events, meetings, volunteering)?

7. Future plans

Question	Notes
What are your hopes for your child in the long term (university, country, career)?
Do you plan to stay in the international programme through to the end of school?
Explain the programme's pathway (for example IGCSE, then the sixth form programme) and how it differs from the 中考 and 高考 route, using the admissions office's wording. Does the family understand that moving back to the national exam route later may not be straightforward?
Year 10 applicants: which IGCSE subjects does the student hope to take? Explain that IGCSE is a two-year course starting in Year 10.

8. Boarding (only if the child will board)

Question	Notes
Has the child stayed away from home before (camps, boarding, family)? How did it go?
How independent are they with daily routines, sleep and belongings?
How will the family keep in touch, and how often will the child go home?
