Why Do Pandas Eat All Day?

Giant pandas live in the mountain forests of central China. They are famous for their black and white fur, but they are also famous for something else: they eat almost nothing except bamboo.

This is surprising, because a panda's body is really made for eating meat. Its stomach and intestines are short and simple, like a bear's. Animals that eat only plants, such as cows, have much longer and more complicated digestive systems. As a result, pandas get very little energy from their food. To survive, an adult panda must eat for up to 14 hours a day. It can eat more than 12 kilograms of bamboo in a single day.

Pandas have a special way of holding bamboo. A bone in their wrist has grown longer and works like a thumb. With this "thumb", a panda can grip a stem tightly while it bites.

Because bamboo gives them so little energy, pandas try not to waste it. They move slowly and rest a lot.

Baby pandas are tiny. A newborn cub weighs only about 100 to 200 grams, which is about the weight of an apple. Its mother is about 900 times heavier.

For many years, giant pandas were in danger. Today, thanks to protected forests and careful work by scientists, their numbers are slowly growing.

- [ ] There are fewer pandas every year.

Why are the numbers of pandas growing today?

Part C

Halfway Up

From the ground, the climbing wall had looked easy. Now, eight metres up, Mei was not so sure.

Her right hand was on a small red hold, no bigger than a coin. Her left foot rested on a ledge so narrow that only her toes fitted on it. Below her, the sports hall had gone strangely quiet. She could hear her own breathing, fast and loud.

"You're doing great, Mei!" That was Coach Zhang, who was holding her rope. His voice sounded very far away.

Mei looked up. The next hold was a blue one, just out of reach. To get it, she would have to let go with one hand and push up hard with her legs. For one terrible second, she would be holding on with almost nothing.

She had done this move a hundred times at training, two metres above a soft mat. It was exactly the same move. That was what she told herself. Her body did not believe her.

Her arms began to shake. Sweat made her fingers slippery. She thought about the other girls in the competition, who had all reached the top. She thought about how easy it would be to shout "Lower me down!" and float gently back to the floor. Nobody would really blame her.

Then a small voice called out from somewhere near the door. "Go on, Mei!"

It was Bo, her little brother. He was six, and he was standing on a chair so that he could see. Mum was holding on to the back of his T-shirt. He was waving a sign made from a cereal box. In wobbly letters, it said: MEI CAN FLY.

Mei almost laughed. Something tight in her chest seemed to loosen. She breathed out slowly, bent her knees and pushed.

Her fingers closed around the blue hold.

Five moves later, she slapped the top of the wall, and the quiet hall exploded into noise.

15 / 1

How high up the wall is Mei at the start of the story? _____

16 / 1

"Her body did not believe her." What does this sentence mean?

2. _____

18 / 1

19 / 1

Year 9 Admission Assessment: assessor booklet

Candidate name
Date of birth
Year group applied for
Current school
Date of assessment
Assessor

Who this is for. Students applying for Year 9 (age 13 on 1 September). A student from a Chinese mainstream school has usually completed Grade 7 (初一); a student joining mid-year is partway through Grade 8. Ask the student and the family which grade and which textbooks they have used, because the order of topics differs between textbooks and regions. Background on Chinese school sequences, the English bands and the decision guide is in `00_Admissions_Guide.md`.

What it measures. The student's level of English in listening, reading, writing and speaking (bands A to E), their maths and science against the UK Year 8 curriculum (what a Year 9 student should know on entry), and, through the interview, who they are, their future plans and their suitability for the programme.

Files: `shared/Sentence_Reading_Card`, `shared/Sentence_Reading_Record`, `forms/Interview_Record_Y7_Y10`, `forms/Candidate_Summary_and_Decision`.

The parent conversation (`forms/Parent_Conversation_Record`, about 15 minutes) can run at the same time with another member of staff. The written papers (tasks 2 to 7) can be taken in a small group with one invigilator; the interview is always 1:1.

2. Before you start

Room. Quiet, bright, a clock the student can see, the student paper face down, a pencil, rubber and ruler. Glasses or hearing aids if the student uses them.

Say (welcome): "Hello, I am [name]. Thank you for coming today. These activities help us get to know you, so that we can help you when you join us. Some questions are easy and some are hard. Nobody gets everything right, and that is fine. Do your best. If you do not know an answer, go on to the next question. In the English parts, I can only repeat the instructions. In maths and science, I can read any question to you. Do you have any questions before we start?"

Access rules (the same in every year group)

	English sections (listening, reading, writing, sentence reading)	Maths and science
Reading aloud	Read only what the script says. Do not read the reading texts or questions aloud, explain words or translate. Instructions may be repeated in English.	Any question may be read aloud in English, as often as the student asks. You may point to the picture.
Chinese	Not used by staff.	If a Chinese-speaking colleague is present and the student clearly cannot follow the English after it has been read aloud, the colleague may say the question once in Chinese. Write L in the margin. The mark still counts.
Answers	In English only. An answer in Chinese scores 0.	In English only: numbers, words, ticks, drawings and working all count. An answer or explanation in Chinese scores 0.
Not yet taught		If the student says they have not learnt a topic, write NT beside the question. It scores 0. List NT topics in the score summary.

Extra time, a reader or other arrangements for a known need are allowed: record them in the score summary.

Stopping rules

- The student may stop any section when they have done what they can. Say: "That is fine. Thank you. We will go on to the next part."
- Reading paper: if the student cannot answer any of Part A after about 4 minutes, let them stop and record it. Do not move them on to Parts B and C.
- Writing: if the student has written nothing in English after 3 minutes, say once: "Write anything you can in English: a few words or sentences about yourself is fine." Then let them stop when they wish.
- Maths and science: encourage the student to look at every page, because later questions on different topics may be easier for them. Do not stop early unless the student is distressed.
- If a student becomes upset at any point, stop, take a break, and continue only if they are happy to. Record it.

Keeping the student at ease. Smile, use the student's name, and keep your voice calm. Do not say "right" or "wrong" during the tasks; say "thank you" instead. Give a two-minute warning before the end of the reading paper, maths and science. A student who finishes early may check their work quietly.

3. English

3.1 Listening (5 minutes, 8 marks)

Say: "Turn to the Listening page. You will hear two friends, Mei and Tom, talking about a science club trip. I will read it two times. First, you have one minute to read the questions." Wait one minute. Say: "Now listen." Read the script. Wait 10 seconds. Say: "Now listen again." Read it again. Then give the student one more minute to finish.

Read it twice at a natural, steady pace (about the speed of a teacher talking to a class). Say each speaker's name before their line, a little more quietly, both times. At each [pause], stop for about 3 seconds. Do not slow down for key words, repeat lines or explain anything.

Script: Planning the Saturday trip

Mei: Hi, Tom. Are you coming on the science club trip on Saturday?

Tom: Yes, I am. But I've lost the letter. Where are we going again?

Mei: To the Science and Technology Museum. The robot exhibition has finished, but there's a new exhibition about space. They've got a real rocket engine! [pause]

Tom: Cool. What time do we meet?

Mei: At half past eight, at the school gate. The coach leaves at a quarter to nine, so don't be late. [pause]

Tom: What's the weather going to be like?

Mei: Cloudy in the morning, and rain in the afternoon. Bring an umbrella. [pause]

Tom: Do I need to bring any money?

Mei: The museum ticket is free for students. Lunch in the museum café costs forty yuan, or you can bring a packed lunch. [pause]

Tom: I'll bring my own lunch. My grandma makes amazing dumplings.

Mei: Oh, and Mr Zhang says everyone must bring their student card. You can't get a free ticket without it. [pause]

Tom: OK. When do we get back?

Mei: At about five o'clock. [pause]

Tom: Five o'clock? That's a long day. I hope it doesn't rain too much.

Mei: Most of the day is inside, anyway. [pause]

Tom: Oh no, my student card! I think it's still in my PE bag. I'd better check tonight.

Mei: Good idea. Last time, Jun forgot his card, and he had to wait at the ticket office for twenty minutes while Mr Zhang phoned the school.

Tom: Poor Jun. I don't want that to happen to me. See you on Saturday! [pause]

Answers (1 mark each). Spelling does not matter in listening if the meaning is clear (for example "studen kard").

Q	Answer	Also accept	Do not accept, and what it tells you
1	A (the rocket: space)		B (robots: the exhibition that has finished)
2	B (8:30)		A (8:45 is when the coach leaves)
3	C (rain)		B (cloudy is the morning)
4	40 (yuan)	forty; ¥40
5	(their) student card	student ID; school card; card	ticket; money; umbrella
6	(about) five o'clock	5; 5:00; 17:00; five; 5 pm	8:30 or 8:45
7	The rain will not be a big problem.

Q	Answer	Also accept	Do not accept, and what it tells you
8	To warn Tom, or to remind him why he must bring his card	Any answer that shows what happened to Jun because he forgot his card (he had to wait 20 minutes), or that Mei does not want the same thing to happen to Tom	"Jun is her friend"; "Jun was late"; an answer about lunch or dumplings

Band guide

Score	0 to 2	3 to 4	5 to 6	7	8
Listening band	A	B	C	D	E

What to look for

- Questions 1 to 3 check the main points, each with a distractor (robots, 8:45, cloudy); 4 to 6 need exact detail; 7 and 8 need implied meaning. The questions follow the order of the script. A student who gets 1 to 6 but not 7 and 8 follows everyday talk but not yet what is meant: usually C.
- A wrong answer that is a distractor (8:45, B in question 3) shows the student heard words but not how they connect ("leaves at", "in the morning").
- Compare with listening in the interview (how much of your English the student understood). If the two differ by more than one band, use the interview as a check: some students freeze in a test, and some hide gaps in conversation with good routines.

3.2 Reading paper (12 minutes, 24 marks)

Say: "Turn to the Reading page. There are three parts, A, B and C. Each part is harder. Read the texts yourself. I cannot read them to you or explain words. Do as much as you can. It is fine if you do not finish. You have 12 minutes." Give a two-minute warning.

General rules. Answers can be in the student's own words or copied from the text, unless the question says "copy". Ignore spelling and grammar unless the answer cannot be understood (except question 12). Answers must be in English; an answer in Chinese scores 0.

Part A: sports centre poster (very accessible; picture support)

Q	Answer	Marks	Also accept / notes
1	Swimming	1	swim
2	¥15	1	15; 15 yuan
3	Yoga	1
4	A swimming cap	1	cap; swim hat. Do not accept "money" or "student card".
5	False, True, True, False	2	All four correct: 2. Three correct: 1. Two or fewer: 0 (two is the score from guessing).
6	No and a reason: climbing is for ages 13 and over; he is too young; he is only 12	1	Both parts needed. "No" alone: 0.
7	Table tennis	1	Climbing is on Saturday afternoon, so "climbing" does not score.

Part B: "Why Do Pandas Eat All Day?" (non-fiction, about two years below age level)

Q	Answer	Marks	Also accept / notes
8	In (the mountain forests of) central China	1	China; in mountain forests; in the mountains. Do not accept "in a zoo" or "bamboo".
9	14 (hours)	1	up to 14. Do not accept 12 (that is the kilograms).
10	They get very little energy from bamboo	1	Their body is made for eating meat, so it cannot use bamboo well; bamboo has little energy. Do not accept "because they like bamboo" or "they are hungry" without a reason.

Q	Answer	Marks	Also accept / notes
11	A bone in its wrist that works like a thumb	1	thumb; wrist bone; a long bone. Do not accept "teeth", or "hand" or "paw" alone.
12	tiny	1	Must be the copied word, spelt correctly.
13	"Pandas move slowly to save energy." and "A newborn panda weighs about the same as an apple."	2	1 mark for each correct tick, minus 1 for each wrong tick (minimum 0).
14	Forests are protected, and scientists work carefully to help pandas	1	Either idea: protected forests; scientists; people protect them.

Part C: "Halfway Up" (fiction, age-appropriate for a fluent reader of 13)

Q	Skill	Answer	Marks	Also accept / notes
15	Retrieval	Eight metres	1	8 m; 8. Do not accept 2 metres (the training height).
16	Vocabulary and meaning in context	"Mei knew the move was easy, but she still felt afraid."	1
17	Retrieval and inference	Any two of: her arms shook; sweat made her fingers slippery; her breathing was fast and loud; she wanted to be lowered down or give up; "one terrible second"; she was "not so sure"; the coach's voice sounded far away; something tight in her chest	2	1 mark each, own words or quotation. Do not accept "she looked up" or "she was eight metres up" alone.
18	Author's purpose	To show the pressure on Mei: she does not want to be the only one who fails; she feels she must reach the top too	1	To make the reader worry that she will fail; to make her feel worse or more nervous. Do not accept a retelling with no purpose ("because they reached the top").
19	Inference	The sign was funny or sweet (her little brother made it; "MEI CAN FLY"), and it made her feel better	1	Either idea: it was funny or cute; her brother's support cheered her up or made her less nervous. Do not accept "she was happy" with no reason.
20	Vocabulary in context	It suddenly became very loud; everyone started cheering at once	1	very loud; suddenly noisy; people shouted and clapped. Do not accept a literal explosion or "something broke".
21	Inference across the text	From frightened or nervous (start) to happy, proud, relieved or confident (end)	1	Both ends needed.

Band guide (use judgement when a result is uneven, and check against the sentence reading screen)

Result	Band
Part A under 4	A New to English
Part A 4 or more, Part B under 4	B Early acquisition
Part B 4 or more, Part C under 3	C Developing competence
Part C 3 to 5	D Competent
Part C 6 to 8	E Fluent

What to look for

- Strong readers answer Part C in their own words, explain why (questions 18 and 19), and see the change in feeling (21). Retrieval-only answers in Part C, with inference questions blank, usually mean band C or a low D.
- An English barrier looks like: Part A secure, Part B patchy, Part C blank or copied lines that do not answer the question. A student who reads aloud well (sentence reading) but scores low on Parts B and C may be decoding without understanding: see the meaning checks on the sentence reading record.

- Speed. Note where the student was when time ran out. A student who answers everything they reach correctly but does not reach Part C may be a slow but accurate reader: give a D or C by judgement and say so.

3.3 Writing (10 minutes, 16 marks)

Say: "Turn to the Writing page. Choose one task, A or B, and tick the box. You can plan in the box, then write on the lines. You have 10 minutes. Write as much as you can." Do not explain the tasks or words.

The tasks. Task A (narrative): a story that begins "When I opened my bag, I found something that was not mine." Task B (opinion): an article for the school magazine, "Should every school day include one hour of sport?", with an opinion and at least two reasons. The plan is not marked.

Score each criterion 0 to 4 (1 and 3 fall between the descriptions).

Criterion	0	2	4 (what a fluent 13 year old would do)
Content and organisation	Nothing relevant in English, or a few words copied from the task.	Relevant to the task; ideas in a sensible order but little developed; may be one block of text; the story stops rather than ends, or the article lists reasons without explaining them.	Well developed and clearly organised in paragraphs. Story: an opening that follows on from the given sentence, a problem, some description or tension, an ending. Article: a clear opinion, two or more reasons with examples or explanation, a conclusion; suits a magazine reader.
Vocabulary	Isolated words, or only words from the prompt.	Everyday words used correctly but repeated ("good", "very", "nice"); a few words chosen for effect; simple linking (and, but, because).	Wide and precise vocabulary, some ambitious words used correctly; a range of linking words (however, although, as a result, suddenly); topic words (fitness, stress, concentrate).
Grammar and sentences	No sentences.	Mostly simple sentences, some joined with and, but, because; frequent errors in verb tense, plurals and articles, but the meaning is clear.	A variety of sentence types, including complex sentences (when, although, which, if); tenses controlled (past tense in the story); errors are rare and do not affect meaning.
Spelling and punctuation	Mostly impossible to read.	Common words spelt correctly; capital letters and full stops mostly correct; errors in less common words.	Almost all words spelt correctly, including ambitious ones; full stops, commas, question marks, apostrophes and (in a story) speech marks used correctly.

Band by best fit, using the descriptors in `00_Admissions_Guide.md`, Section 6, and the notes below. The total is a check, not a rule: as a rough guide, totals of 0 to 3 usually go with A, 4 to 7 with B, 8 to 10 with C, 11 to 13 with D and 14 to 16 with E.

Band	Writing at Year 9 entry
A	Name, isolated words or copied phrases; may write in Chinese.
B	A few short sentences on the topic, with frequent errors; meaning mostly clear.
C	A short connected piece (often 60 to 120 words) with some joined sentences; errors frequent but rarely block meaning; little paragraphing.
D	An organised piece (often 120 to 200 words) with paragraphs and a range of sentences; generally accurate with occasional errors; some varied vocabulary.

Band E writing at this age. A fluent 13 year old usually writes 150 to 250 words in 10 minutes, in paragraphs, with a clear opening and ending, a range of sentence types used for effect, controlled tenses, precise and sometimes ambitious vocabulary, and mostly accurate spelling and punctuation. The story has a voice and some suspense; the article sounds like an article (it speaks to the reader, gives reasons and examples, and ends with a conclusion).

What to look for

- Typical features of English from speakers of Chinese (missing articles, plural -s, past tense -ed, third person -s) are normal at bands C and D. Do not let them alone pull a well-organised, well-developed piece below D.

- A memorised opening ("Once upon a time", "Nowadays, with the development of society") followed by very simple writing shows exam training more than fluency: band by what the student can produce independently.
- A student who plans well (clear notes in the plan box) but writes little may have the ideas but not yet the English: note it, because it points to good progress with support.

3.4 Interview, speaking and sentence reading (15 minutes, 1:1)

Use `forms/Interview_Record_Y7_Y10` for the interview and `shared/Sentence_Reading_Record` for the sentence reading. Both are in English.

- Sentence reading first (3 to 5 minutes). Year 9 starts at Level 8 (sentence 22). Follow the start, going-back and stopping rules and the scoring on the record. It gives total points out of 72, an indicative reading age, meaning checks and a fluency rating. If you already know the student is new to English, start at Level 1.
- Interview (about 10 minutes): choose questions from each block on the form, including future plans and aspirations and the suitability strands. Use the easier and stretch prompts so that every student can show their best spoken English.
- Speaking band: circle it on the interview record, using the descriptors there, and copy it to the score summary below. Pronunciation features of a speaker of Chinese do not lower the band if the student is easy to understand.

4. Maths (20 minutes, 30 marks)

Say: "Turn to the Maths page. You have 20 minutes. Write your answers in the boxes and show your working. I can read any question to you in English. You may not use a calculator. Do as much as you can, and look at every page." The example box at the start of Section A shows what the command words Expand, Factorise and Solve mean; it is there so that an English word does not hide maths the student knows.

Sections. Section A, Number problems (questions 1 to 6, 9 marks): calculation and algebra with no context. Section B, Word problems and pictures (questions 7 to 18, 21 marks): word problems (questions 7 to 10, 7 marks) and problems with diagrams, pictures and tables (questions 11 to 18, 14 marks). Questions 6 and 18 are ceiling items from the Year 9 curriculum; questions 1, 2 and 7 are floor items.

Marking. M = method mark, A = accuracy mark (depends on the method), B = independent mark. A correct answer with no working gets full marks unless the scheme says otherwise. Units are not needed unless stated. Working in numbers and symbols is fine; any words must be in English.

What a Year 9 entrant may not have been taught. A student from a Chinese mainstream school has usually completed Grade 7 (初一): operations with negative numbers, algebraic expressions and "removing brackets", linear equations and inequalities, angles and parallel lines, square roots, coordinates and simultaneous equations. Grade 8 topics (factorising, multiplying out double brackets, Pythagoras, polygon angle sums, linear functions and graphs, weighted mean) may not have been taught yet. Probability as a number is often met in Grade 9. Use NT and judge whether the student would reach the expected band once taught.

Q	Topic	Answer	Marks and partial credit	May not have been taught?
Section A	Number problems
1	Negative numbers (floor)	(a) 5 (b) –18	B1 each	Usually secure (Grade 6 to 7).
2	Index notation	7	B1. 16 – 9. A wrong answer of 2 (from 8 – 6) shows powers read as multiplication.	Usually secure (Grade 7, 乘方).
3	Expand; factorise	(a) $8x - 12$ (b) $3(2y + 5)$	B1 each. (b) accept $3(5 + 2y)$.	(a) usually secure ("removing brackets", Grade 7). (b) factorising is Grade 8 (因式分解): may not have been taught.

Q	Topic	Answer	Marks and partial credit	May not have been taught?
4	Equation with brackets and unknowns on both sides	$x = 4$	M1 for $3x + 12 = x + 20$ or $2x = 8$; A1 for 4.	Usually secure (Grade 7).
5	Linear inequality	$x \leqslant 5$	B1. Accept $5 \geqslant x$. Do not accept $x = 5$ or $x < 5$.	Usually secure (Grade 7).
6	Double brackets (ceiling)	$x^2 + 8x + 15$	B1 for the simplified answer. If $x^2 + 3x + 5x + 15$ is seen but not simplified: 0, but note "expands correctly".	Grade 8 (整式的乘法): may not have been taught.
Section B	Word problems
7	Percentage of an amount (one step)	14	B1	Secure (Grade 6).
8	Direct proportion, money (two steps)	¥56	M1 for ¥7 for one notebook, or 35 × 8 ÷ 5, or 35 + 21; A1 for 56.	Secure (Grade 6).
9	Percentage decrease, money (two steps)	¥180	M1 for 60 (25% of 240), or 240 × 0.75, or 240 × 3/4; A1 for 180. An answer of 60 scores M1 only.	Secure: Chinese students know discounts well (75% of the price is 七五折).
10	Speed, distance, time (two steps)	750 km	M1 for 2.5 hours seen, or 300 × 2 + 150, or 300 × 2.5; A1 for 750. An answer of 690 (using 2.3 hours) scores 0 but shows a time conversion error: note it.	Secure (primary: 速度 × 时间 = 路程).
Section B	Diagrams, pictures and tables
11	Probability (spinner)	3/8	B1. Accept 0.375, 37.5%, "3 out of 8". Do not accept 3 : 5 or 3 : 8.	Probability as a fraction is often Grade 9 (概率): may not have been taught, although "likelihood" is met in primary.
12	Parallel lines; angles on a line	$a = 62°$, $b = 118°$	B1 each. b: follow through 180 – their a. Reasons not needed.	Secure (Grade 7, 平行线).
13	Circumference and area of a circle	(a) 31.4 cm (b) 78.5 cm^2	B1 each. Accept 10π and 25π. An area of 314 (using the diameter as the radius) scores 0: note it.	Secure (Grade 6).
14	Interior angle of a regular hexagon	120°	B1	Polygon angle sums are Grade 8 (多边形内角和): may not have been taught. Some students reason from six equilateral triangles.
15	Volume of a triangular prism	120 cm^3	M1 for 12 (the triangle area, ½ × 6 × 4) or ½ × 6 × 4 × 10; A1 for 120. An answer of 240 (no ½) scores 0: note it.	Usually secure (volume = base area × height, Grade 5 to 6).
16	Mean from a frequency table	2.1	M1 for 42 (0 + 3 + 16 + 15 + 8) or 42 ÷ 20; A1 for 2.1. Answers of 2 (mode or median) or 4 (20 ÷ 5) score 0.	The weighted mean is Grade 8 (加权平均数): may not have been taught, although the simple mean is met in Grade 4.
17	Straight-line graph	(a) 1, 3, 5 (b) a straight line through (0, –1) and (4, 7)	(a) B1 for all three. (b) B1 for a ruled straight line through at least four correct points from $x = 0$ to 4 (follow through from their table if their points are on a straight line).	Linear functions are Grade 8 (一次函数): may not have been taught. Coordinates are secure (Grade 7).

Q	Topic	Answer	Marks and partial credit	May not have been taught?
18	Pythagoras' theorem (ceiling)	13 m	M1 for $12^2 + 5^2$ or 169; A1 for 13. An answer of 17 (12 + 5) scores 0.	Grade 8 (勾股定理): may not have been taught.

Totals: Section A / 9, Section B / 21 (of which word problems, questions 7 to 10: / 7). Band guide (provisional): 0 to 11: 1 Well below expected; 12 to 17: 2 Working towards; 18 to 25: 3 Expected; 26 to 30: 4 Greater depth.

Not tested this year (not enough time): rotation and enlargement, scatter graphs, inequalities shown on a number line. Ask about them in the interview if they matter for placement.

What to look for

- Number problems against word problems. A student who scores well on Section A but poorly on the word problems (questions 7 to 10) may have an English barrier rather than a maths difficulty. Check by reading the word problem aloud in English, and, if a Chinese-speaking colleague is present, once in Chinese (mark it L). If the student then solves it quickly, record the barrier: it points to English support in maths lessons, not to a lower maths set.
- Strong responses show clear, organised working, correct units, and confidence on the Grade 8 topics (factorising, Pythagoras, graphs). Many students from Chinese schools calculate quickly and accurately but leave out working: that is a habit, not a weakness, but they will need to show working in IGCSE later.
- Weak responses show errors on taught topics (negative numbers, equations, percentages), not just on NT topics. If most of the lost marks are NT questions, write the likely band once taught in the summary.

5. Science (8 minutes, 10 marks)

Say: "Turn to the Science page. You have 8 minutes. I can read any question to you in English. Do as much as you can."

What a Year 9 entrant may not have been taught. In Chinese middle schools, biology starts in Grade 7 (cells, plants, the human body, digestion, breathing, food chains), physics in Grade 8 and chemistry only in Grade 9. A Year 9 entrant has usually done some biology but no secondary physics or chemistry. Questions 4 to 6 may not have been taught: mark NT rather than reading this as weak science, and judge the student's scientific thinking from questions 5 and 7.

Q	Topic	Answer	Marks and partial credit	May not have been taught?
1	Food webs	(a) grass (b) "It goes up" and fewer frogs eat them	(a) B1. (b) B1 for the tick with a correct reason; the tick alone scores 0.	Secure (Grade 7 biology, 食物网).
2	Photosynthesis word equation	oxygen	B1. Accept O_2.	Secure (Grade 7 biology), but the English words "glucose" and "carbon dioxide" may be new: read them aloud.
3	Digestion	C (small intestine)	B1	Secure (Grade 7 biology, 消化和吸收).
4	Elements, compounds and mixtures	(a) B (b) C	B1 each	Chemistry is Grade 9: may not have been taught.
5	Conservation of mass	150.0 g	B1. Accept 150.	Grade 9 chemistry (质量守恒定律): may not have been taught, but a good scientific thinker can reason it from "nothing can get in or out".
6	Current in a series circuit	0.3 A	B1	Series circuits are Grade 9 physics: may not have been taught; simple circuits are met in primary.

Q	Topic	Answer	Marks and partial credit	May not have been taught?
7	Electromagnet: fair test and pattern in a table	(a) One control variable: the same battery (or voltage), the same nail, the same kind of paper clips, the same wire (b) 12	B1 each. (a) Do not accept "number of turns" (the variable he changes) or "number of paper clips" (what he measures).	Electromagnets are met in some primary textbooks and in Grade 9 physics; the working scientifically skills are the main point.

Band guide (provisional): 0 to 3: 1; 4 to 5: 2; 6 to 8: 3; 9 to 10: 4. Look at the NT questions before deciding.

Not tested this year (not enough time): metals and non-metals in the periodic table, combustion and word equations, aerobic respiration, heating and cooling (conduction, convection, radiation).

What to look for

- Working scientifically (questions 5 and 7): a student who explains a fair test and spots the pattern in a table is likely to do well once taught, even with several NT questions.
- An English barrier looks like: blank or wrong answers that become right when you read the question aloud. Science vocabulary in English (producer, compound, mixture, ammeter) is often the gap: note the words the student did not know.
- Strong responses give the reason as well as the answer in question 1(b) and name a sensible control variable in question 7(a).

Assessor signature and date _____

Graded Sentence Reading Screen: assessor record

Candidate name
Date of birth
Age today (years:months)
Year group applied for
Date
Assessor

What it is. A quick 1:1 read-aloud screen for every candidate from Year 1 to Year 10. The student reads sentences that get harder, from a reading age of about 5 to adult level, until they can no longer read them. It gives an indicative reading age, an accuracy profile, a fluency rating and an understanding check. It takes 2 to 6 minutes. In Years 1 to 3 it follows the Early Reading Screen; from Year 4 it opens the interview.

You need: the student card (`Sentence_Reading_Card`), this record, a pencil, and a plain card or sheet of paper to cover the sentences the student has not reached yet (this stops a page of text looking frightening).

1. Start, carry on, stop

Year applied for	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Start at level	1	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
First sentence	1	1	4	7	10	13	16	19	22	25

- If you already know the student is new to English, start at Level 1 whatever their age.
- Going back (basal). If the student scores 6 out of 6 on the start level, give full credit (6 points) for every level below it. If they score less than 6, go back one level at a time until they score 6 out of 6 on a level (or you reach Level 1). Then carry on upwards from the level after the start level.
- Stopping (ceiling). Always finish the start level. Then stop at the end of any level where the student scores 2 points or fewer. Stop straight away if the student scores 0 on three sentences in a row, or if they become upset. Levels above the stopping point score 0.

Say: "I would like you to read some sentences out loud for me. They start easy and get harder. When they get too hard, that is fine, we will stop. If you do not know a word, have a go. Ready?" Point to the first sentence. You may say "Have a go" or "Try the next word". Do not sound out, explain or translate any word.

2. Scoring each sentence

Errors in the sentence	Points
none (self-corrections are fine)	2
one	1
two or more	0

These count as one error each

Code	Error	Example
S	Substitution: says a different word or a non-word	"horse" for house; "sur-pried" for surprised
O	Omission: leaves out a word, or leaves off a written ending that changes the word (-s, -ed, -ing, -ly)	"The frog jump out" for jumped
I	Insertion: adds a word that is not there	"the a red bus"

Code	Error	Example
T	Told: no attempt after about 5 seconds; say the word, mark T
	Two words read in the wrong order	one error

These are not errors (mark them, but do not count them)

Code	What happens	Why it is not an error
SC	Self-correction: reads a word wrongly, then puts it right	The student is checking meaning.
R	Repetition of a word or phrase
	Pauses, or sounding out and then blending the word correctly	Note it for fluency instead.
	Accent and pronunciation features common for speakers of Chinese, when the word is still clearly the right word: l and r ("lice" for rice), n and l, v and w, th as s, f, d or z ("sink" for think), a light or missing final consonant sound, an extra vowel after a final consonant ("bed-uh"), the -ed ending said in full ("jump-ed"), stress on a different syllable ("ho-TEL", "PHO-to-graph")	These are features of a learner's spoken English, not of reading. If the sound changes the word into a different word that makes sense, and you cannot tell which was meant, count it.
	Names (Ling, Jun, Mei) read in any reasonable way
	Reading the British spelling as written ("tyres", "colour")

When you are not sure, give the student the benefit of the doubt and write what they said in the notes. Patterns in the notes (for example missing -ed endings throughout, or pinyin letter values such as "i" read as in pinyin) are useful evidence for the English profile.

3. Understanding (the meaning check)

After each level the student reads with 3 or more points, ask the meaning question for that level (printed in the record). Read the question aloud once and let the student answer in their own words. Record ✓ (understood), ½ (partly) or ✗ (not understood). The answer must be in English: one word or a short phrase is enough, and pointing to the right words in the sentence also counts. An answer in Chinese is recorded ✗.

4. Fluency

Rate the student's reading on the last level they read with 4 or more points.

Rating	What it sounds like
1	Word by word. Long pauses. Little sense of the sentence as a whole.
2	Mostly two- or three-word groups, with some word-by-word reading. Little expression.
3	Mostly in sensible phrases. Some pauses to work out harder words. The sentence makes sense to the listener.
4	Smooth and phrased, close to natural speech, with stress and expression that show understanding.

6. Reading age

Total points = points scored + 6 for every level below the basal level that was not read.

Reading age (years:months) = 5:00 + 2 months for every point (0 points: below 5:00). So 6 points = 6:00 (Level 1 secure), 12 points = 7:00, 30 points = 10:00, 60 points = 15:00, 72 points = 17:00 (the ceiling: report "16 years or above" for 66 points or more).

7. What the result means

This screen is not standardised. The reading ages come from the way the sentences were built (how common the words are, the spelling patterns in the English National Curriculum word lists for each year, and the length and structure of the sentences). Treat a reading age as a range of about 6 months either side. Once 30 to 50 students have taken it, compare their reading ages with the reading paper and with how they get on in class, and adjust the guide below if needed.

The reading band. In Years 1 to 3 the reading band comes from the Early Reading Screen; in Years 4 to 10 from the reading paper. This screen confirms the band. Use the table as a guide; if this screen and the main reading result differ by more than one band, look for the reason (below).

Reading age compared with actual age	Years 3 to 5	Years 6 to 10
At or above actual age, or close below it	up to 6 months below: E	up to 12 months below: E
Below	7 to 12 months below: D	13 to 24 months below: D
Well below	13 to 24 months below: C	25 to 42 months below: C
Far below	25 to 36 months below: B	43 to 60 months below: B
Very far below, or Level 1 not secure	more than 36 months below: A	more than 60 months below: A

- Years 1 and 2. Many fluent English speakers score 0 to 6 points at the start of Year 1. At the start of Year 2 a fluent reader usually has Level 1 secure and often Level 2. Use the reading age as supporting evidence only.
- Decoding ahead of understanding. If the meaning checks on the last two levels read are mostly ✗, move the band down one. This is common for students who learnt phonics or the phonetic alphabet well but have a small English vocabulary: they can "say" words they do not know.
- Understanding ahead of decoding. A student who understands well (✓ throughout) but stops early on long, rare words may be a confident English user who has had little reading practice, or may have a specific difficulty with reading. Look at the Early Reading Screen or the reading paper and, if there is a pattern, raise it in the summary.
- Low fluency (rating 1 or 2) with a good reading age often means effortful decoding: the student will find long texts in English tiring at first.
- Level 1 not secure at any age: use the letter sounds and Section 1 words of the Early Reading Screen to find what the student knows.

Student interview and suitability record: Years 7 to 10

Candidate name
Year group applied for
Date
Interviewer
Others present (for example receiving homeroom teacher; Chinese-speaking colleague)

About 15 minutes, 1:1. The interview is held in English. It has three jobs: to hear the student's spoken English (the speaking band), to get to know the student (interests, learning, wellbeing, future plans and aspirations), and to judge their suitability for the international programme. It opens with the Graded Sentence Reading Screen (start Level 6 for Year 7, 7 for Year 8, 8 for Year 9, 9 for Year 10; record on `shared/Sentence_Reading_Record.md`).

How to ask. Start with the main question. If the student struggles, use the easier prompt (a yes or no, or a choice). If they answer easily, use the stretch prompt. This lets every student show their best English. Wait at least five seconds before rephrasing. Answers must be in English.

Safeguarding. Keep the door open or another adult present. If a student tells you something that worries you about their safety or wellbeing, do not promise to keep it secret; listen, write down their words, and pass it to the Designated Safeguarding Lead the same day.

Questions for us	What would you like to ask me about the school?	Do you have any questions?

3. Speaking band

Circle the band that fits best. Use the evidence from the whole interview.

Band	What you hear
A New to English	Little or no spoken English, or single memorised words and phrases ("I am fine"). Relies on Chinese, gesture or silence. Understands very little unless supported.
B Early acquisition	Short answers and simple memorised sentences on familiar topics (family, school, likes). Frequent errors in word order, verbs and plurals. Needs the easier prompts. Understands slow, simple questions.
C Developing competence	Answers most main questions with connected sentences, using "because", "but", "so". Errors are frequent but meaning is usually clear. Vocabulary is everyday; searches for words on less familiar topics. Can give a short opinion with a reason.
D Competent	Speaks at length on most questions, explains and gives examples, handles the stretch prompts with some effort. Errors are occasional and rarely affect meaning. Some subject and abstract vocabulary.
E Fluent	Speaks as fluently and accurately as a fluent English speaker of the same age. Handles abstract and hypothetical questions easily, with a wide vocabulary.

Speaking band: A B C D E Listening in conversation (how much of your English they understood): A B C D E

Notes on pronunciation and intelligibility (pronunciation features of a speaker of Chinese do not lower the band if the student is easy to understand):

4. Suitability

Rate each strand from what you saw and heard. 1 Concern, 2 Some concern, 3 Good, 4 Strong. Write the evidence: a short quotation or something you observed.

Parent conversation record

Candidate name
Year group applied for
Date
Staff member
Parents or carers present
Language used (and interpreter if any)

About 15 minutes. Hold it while the student does the written tasks with another adult, or straight after. Use the family's preferred language; a Chinese-speaking colleague should lead or interpret if the staff member does not speak Chinese. The aim is a two-way conversation: to understand the child and the family's hopes, to explain how the international programme works, and to check that what the family wants matches what the school offers. Do not discuss the assessment results on the day.

1. Why the international programme?

Question	Notes
Why are you looking for a place in the international programme, and why now?
What do you know about how the programme works (lessons in English, the UK-style curriculum, assessment, homework, activities)?
Whose idea is the move, and how does your child feel about it?

2. Schooling so far

Question	Notes
Schools attended, years, and type (Chinese mainstream, bilingual, international, overseas)
Any year repeated or skipped? Any long gaps?
Why is the child leaving their current school?
Student registration (学籍): where is it held now, and what will happen to it? (admissions office to give the school's position)
School reports, certificates and any assessments the family can share

3. Languages

Question	Notes
Which languages are spoken at home, and by whom?
How has the child learnt English so far (school lessons from which grade, classes outside school, tutor, online, time abroad, English-speaking carer)? About how many hours a week?
Does the child read in English at home? In Chinese?
How will the family support English at home (reading, media, activities), and support Chinese if that matters to the family?

4. Learning, health and development

Ask gently and explain why: the school wants to have the right support ready from the first day.

Question	Notes
What is your child good at? What do they enjoy most?
Has any teacher or doctor ever raised a concern about learning, speech and language, attention, behaviour, hearing or vision? Any assessments or reports?
Any extra help at the current school?
Medical conditions, allergies, medication (also on the school medical form)
For young children: speech in Chinese for their age, toilet and self-care, sleep

5. Wellbeing and the week

Question	Notes
How would you describe your child's personality? How do they cope with change?
Friendships: does your child make friends easily?
A typical weekday and weekend: after-school classes, tutoring, sport, music, screen time, sleep
Any big changes in the family recently (a move, a new baby, a parent working away)? Share only what you are comfortable sharing.

6. Expectations and partnership

Question	Notes
What would make this a successful first year for your child?
What do you expect from the school (homework, reports, communication, class rankings, exam results)? Explain how the school reports progress and how it communicates.
How does the family feel about co-curricular activities, sport, arts, service and wellbeing as part of education, not just exam subjects?
Learning in a new language takes time: explain what is typical (social English often within one to two years; the English needed for academic work often takes several years) and how the school supports it. How does the family feel about this?
How would the family like to be involved (events, meetings, volunteering)?

7. Future plans

Question	Notes
What are your hopes for your child in the long term (university, country, career)?
Do you plan to stay in the international programme through to the end of school?
Explain the programme's pathway (for example IGCSE, then the sixth form programme) and how it differs from the 中考 and 高考 route, using the admissions office's wording. Does the family understand that moving back to the national exam route later may not be straightforward?
Year 10 applicants: which IGCSE subjects does the student hope to take? Explain that IGCSE is a two-year course starting in Year 10.

8. Boarding (only if the child will board)

Question	Notes
Has the child stayed away from home before (camps, boarding, family)? How did it go?
How independent are they with daily routines, sleep and belongings?
How will the family keep in touch, and how often will the child go home?

9. Questions from the family

10. Staff view

	Rating	Notes
Match between the family's expectations and what the programme offers	☐1 ☐2 ☐3 ☐4
Family's willingness to work in partnership with the school	☐1 ☐2 ☐3 ☐4
Information to follow up (reports, medical, assessments, 学籍)
